

Dear Friends,

March 2025

We have quite a fun-filled lineup in March! It is exciting to see a mix of celebrations and events. From the dire need of Daylight Savings Time switch to the light-hearted Pi Day, the green explosion of St. Patrick's Day, and the thrill of NCAA March Madness—there is a little bit of everything.

Events to Look Forward to

- Daylight Savings Time begins (March 9): Clocks 'spring' forward, lose one hour of sleep, but who cares?
- Pi Day (March 14): Celebrate this day with a delicious pie and a love for math!
- St. Patrick's Day (March 17): A day full of festivities, parades, and everything green. From traditional Irish music and dancing to delicious food and drinks, it is a celebration that everyone can enjoy.
- NCAA March Madness, Men's Sweet 16 (March 27-28) and Women's Sweet 16 (March 28-29):

Plan to Join Us in a Friendly Wager Instead of betting money, donate a non-perishable food item. We will pick a team from those that make it to the Sweet Sixteen bracket, including both men's and women's tournaments.

Then, choose the team you think will win it all. The winners will receive a free dessert at the next Dine Out Night on Thursday, April 17th.

Let the excitement begin, and may the best team win!

Special Event
